Polar Meteorology and Glaciology

No. 3

Papers presented at the “Eleventh Symposium on Polar Meteorology and Glaciology” held at the National Institute of Polar Research, Tokyo, July 12–13, 1988

CONTENTS

Ozone observations at Syowa Station from February 1987 to January 1988 Susumu KANETO, Akira YAMAMOTO, Hiroyuki OGIHARA, Hidetoshi SUGAWARA and Takashi YAMANOUCI...	1
Interannual changes of upper stratospheric temperatures based on recent satellite observations..... Toshihiko HIROOKA...	15
Effect of polar stratospheric clouds on geochemical cycle of stratospheric material—Stratospheric particle precipitation— Yasunobu IWASAKA and Masahiko HAYASHI...	23
Organic components of Antarctic snow and ice. Part 1. Volatile fatty acids in snow drift Keiichi OHTA, Fumihiko NISHIO and Kazuo OSADA...	36
Transport rates of Na^+ , Cl^- , NO_3^- and SO_4^{2-} by drifting snow at Mi- zuho Station, Antarctica Kazuo OSADA and Keiji HIGUCHI...	43
Measurements of total gas content of an ice core from Mizuho Station, Antarctica Takao KAMEDA, Masayoshi NAKAWO, Masayasu NAGOSHI and Shinji MAE...	51
Effects of radiation scheme on the surface temperature and wind over the Antarctic and on circumpolar lows Kiyotaka SHIBATA and Masaru CHIBA...	58
Atmospheric heat and water budgets of polar regions: Analysis of FGGE data Kooiti MASUDA...	79
Some comments on the recent studies of interannual fluctuations of North- ern Hemisphere snow and ice cover and climate... Iwao TSUCHIYA...	89

Measurements of falling attitudes of snowflakes using two video cameras Ken'ichiro MURAMOTO, Toru SHIINA, Tatsuo ENDOH, Hiroyuki KONISHI and Koh'ichi KITANO...	95
Global decreases in total ozone during the winter months (abstract) Toshinori TAKAO...	100
Chemical components of marine aerosol over the Antarctic Sea (abstract) Masataka NISHIKAWA, Tsuguo MIZOGUCHI, Satoru KANAMORI, Nobuko KANAMORI, Shuhji AOKI and Sadao KAWAGUCHI...	100
Aerosol particles in the Antarctic marine atmosphere (abstract) Masahiko YAMATO, Yasunobu IWASAKA, Gong-Wang QIAN, Akira ONO, Takashi YAMANOUCI and Fumihiko NISHIO...	101
Seasonal change in behavior of sulfate particles in the Antarctic atmosphere (abstract) Masahiko YAMATO, Yasunobu IWASAKA, Gong-Wang QIAN, Akira ONO, Fumihiko NISHIO, Masashi FUKABORI and Kikuo OKADA...	101
Vertical profiles of aerosol optical thickness over Syowa Station, Antarctica (abstract)..... Masataka SHIOBARA...	102
Experimental study on "halo" formation in the polar region (abstract) Yoshinori FURUKAWA and John HALLETT...	102
Chemical nature of heavy metal elements in Antarctic snow (abstract) Satoru KANAMORI, Nobuko KANAMORI, Masataka NISHIKAWA and Fumihiko NISHIO...	103
Variations of oxygen isotopic composition and distribution of continental ice in the last ice age (I) (abstract) Kikuo KATO...	104
Isotopic composition data along a 700-m long Mizuho core (abstract) ... Masayoshi NAKAWO, Okitsugu WATANABE and Takao KAMEDA...	104
Densification of polar ice after the close-off (abstract) Pierre PIMIENIA and Paul DUVAL...	105
Ice flow behavior at Dye 3, Greenland (abstract) Hitoshi SHOJI and Chester C. LANGWAY, Jr....	105
Relation between the special radar echo from within the ice sheet and the configuration of the ground (I) (abstract) Mitsuo HOSHIYAMA, Akira NISHITSUJI, Fumihiko NISHIO, Makoto WADA and Okitsugu WATANABE...	106

Report on Antarctic Climate Research observations by the 28th Japanese Antarctic Research Expedition (abstract)	Takashi YAMANOUCI and Hiroaki TAKABE ...	106
Seasonal variation of snow cover over the Northern Hemisphere: Progression of snowmelt (abstract)	Kooiti MASUDA, Yuki MORINAGA, Atusi NUMAGUTI and Ayako ŌUCHI ...	107
On generation mechanism of ice-ocean eddies off Hokkaido Coast in the Sea of Okhotsk (abstract)	K. I. OHSHIMA and Masaaki WAKATSUCHI ...	108
Experiments on brine exclusion with frazil ice production in open waters (abstract)	Shuki USHIO and Masaaki WAKATSUCHI ...	109
